DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 27,31-37 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that Form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) The invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 37 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated

By Cognetti 5,629,574.

Cognetti '574 discloses an electric motor with control device comprising;
a motor housing(M) having a cavity which is shaped to at least partially receive a rotor, the motor housing including an integrally formed sidewall having a bulge (see Fig. 1 the rectangular shape box) ,the bulge defining a hollow area offset from the cavity (Fig.1) a capacitor (3) assembly including a printed circuit board (9)and at least one capacitor (3), the capacitor assembly being insertable into the hollow area of the bulge and electronically controlling commutation of the electronically commutated brush less; and capacitor assembly is inherently entirely encapsulated with the bulge.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claim 1-26 were previously allowed.

Claim 28 is canceled.

Claims 27,29-36 are now allowed.

The prior art of the record in particular Cognetti'574 does not teach the claimed supporting structure for a motor, interalias, a capacitor assembly housed entirely in a bulge and adapted to be slidably inserted into the bulge along a path extending parallel to a central longitudinal axis of the housing.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
